promoting their self-sufficiency

community to be self-sufficient in their own buildings in the JYY community and labourers benefited from the learning of new

Once the building is complete, the local fish farming pond will become economically self-sufficient and support the local

SPEC: BUILD LOCAL ECONOMIES

#ASFAW
fore speculative economic profitability specificity and responsive to the natural a sacrificial rainscreen that protects the main structure from potentially subject to flooding. To overcome this, the substructure design is a concrete frame to bring the building above the flood level.